CONTRIBUTOR & FREELANCER TERMS

Effective date: 11 September 2026

1. SCOPE

These Terms apply to freelance journalists, photographers, writers, analysts, researchers, videographers and other contributors working with African Power, Mining & Oil Review (APMO Review) magazine and APMOREview.com, unless a separate written agreement applies.

2. ORIGINALITY

Contributors must submit original work or clearly disclose licensed or third-party material and obtain necessary permissions.

3. ACCURACY

Contributors must take reasonable steps to verify factual claims and must disclose material uncertainties, conflicts and relevant commercial relationships.

4. PLAGIARISM

Plagiarism and fabricated material are prohibited.

5. AI

Contributors must disclose material use of AI where requested by the editor and remain responsible for factual accuracy, originality, confidentiality and rights.

6. RIGHTS

Unless otherwise agreed in writing, contributors retain rights in their work subject to the publication, editing, archival and promotional licence reasonably required by APMO Review. Assignment or broader licensing terms should be agreed in writing.

7. EDITING

APMO Review may edit accepted material for accuracy, clarity, length, style and legal or ethical considerations, while taking reasonable care not to materially distort the contributor's work.

8. CONFLICTS

Contributors must disclose financial, personal or commercial conflicts that could affect credibility.

9. CONFIDENTIALITY

Confidential information obtained during assignments must not be misused or disclosed except as authorised or legally required.

10. PAYMENT

Fees, expenses, deadlines and deliverables should be agreed before commissioning where practicable.

11. TERMINATION

APMO Review may reject or discontinue work that fails editorial, legal, ethical or contractual requirements.
