COOKIE POLICY

Effective date: 11 September 2026

1. PURPOSE

This Cookie Policy explains how African Power, Mining & Oil Review (APMO Review) uses cookies and similar technologies on APMOREview.com.

2. WHAT COOKIES ARE

Cookies are small files stored on a device by a website. Similar technologies may include pixels, tags, local storage and analytics identifiers.

3. TYPES OF TECHNOLOGIES WE MAY USE

Necessary technologies support core website functions, security and accessibility.

Functional technologies remember preferences.

Analytics technologies help us understand traffic, page performance and audience behaviour.

Advertising technologies may support advertising measurement, delivery or frequency management.

Social-media technologies may be used where third-party features are embedded.

4. FIRST AND THIRD PARTIES

Some technologies may be placed by APMO Review and others by service providers whose products are integrated into the website.

5. CONSENT

Where applicable law requires consent for non-essential cookies, we will provide an appropriate consent mechanism. You can change or withdraw cookie choices through the available controls.

6. ANALYTICS

Analytics information may include IP-related information, browser/device information, pages viewed, clicks, referrers and approximate geographic or technical information, depending on the service used.

7. ADVERTISING AND EMBEDS

Third-party advertising, video, social-media or other embedded services may use their own technologies. Their policies apply to their processing.

8. BROWSER CONTROLS

Most browsers allow cookies to be blocked or deleted. Blocking necessary cookies may affect website functionality.

9. COOKIE REGISTER

APMO Review should maintain an internal cookie register identifying active cookies or similar technologies, their provider, purpose, category, duration and consent status. The register should be reviewed whenever website technology changes.

10. CONTACT

Questions about cookies may be sent to mchege@apmoreview.com.
